

Easy registration!

November Briefing

Wage Theft, Religious Indoctrination, and Homelessness: Human Trafficking in Colorado

Human trafficking is a widely misunderstood topic. Many are surprised to learn that it takes many forms and takes place in over 25 industries. This virtual briefing will address myths in the human trafficking field, how people are lured into trafficking, and different examples of human trafficking in our community.

Tuesday, November 14, 2023
5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

speaker

Marianna Kosharovsky,
Executive Director of ALIGHT

ALIGHT (Alliance to Lead Impact in Global Human Trafficking) is a nonprofit with a mission to empower human trafficking survivors at scale on their journey to true freedom. ALIGHT empowers individuals who have been exploited on the basis of their vulnerabilities such as experience with homelessness, domestic violence and the foster care system through legal services, and provides comprehensive legal services. Ms. Kosharovsky is an expert in anti-trafficking, law and collaboration between the U.S. and Eastern Europe/Russia. Ms. Kosharovsky holds a JD from NYU Law School.

HTTPS://US06WEB.ZOOM.US/J/89284757578

